FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

The ESTATE OF MICHAEL BOURQUIN, by and through JUDY BURCH, the personal representative for and on behalf of Plaintiffs Decedent MICHAEL BOURQUIN, as an individual, and JUDY BURCH, in her individual capacity, and JUDY BURCH, as the guardian of M.B. and A.B.,

NO. 3:16-cv-05141-BHS

Plaintiffs,

vs.

PIERCE COUNTY, a municipal corporation,
DEPUTY CHAD HELLISGO, in his official capacity as a Pierce County Sheriff's Deputy and in his individual capacity,

MODEL STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Noted for consideration on July 21, 2016

Defendants.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public

1 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to
2 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively
3 entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

4 2. "CONFIDENTIAL" MATERIAL

5 "Confidential" material shall include the following documents and tangible things
6 produced or otherwise exchanged: any information related to an ongoing criminal investigation
7 as defined by RCW 42.56.240.

8 3. SCOPE

9 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 10 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2)
11 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,
12 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential
13 material. However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is 14 in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

15 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

16 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is 17 disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for 18 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be 19 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement.
20 Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a 21 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

1 4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise
2 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 3 disclose any confidential material only to:

- 4 (a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of 5 counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;
- 6 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the receiving 7 party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties agree that 8 a particular document or material produced is for Attorney’s Eyes Only and is so designated;
- 9 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 10 litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit 11 A);
- 12 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;
- 13 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 14 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
15 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately 16 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;
- 17 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably 18 necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit 19 A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 20 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 21 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as 22 be permitted under this agreement;
- 23
- 24
- 25

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other

1 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

2 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 3 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 4 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 5 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

6 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 7 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial
8 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that 9 contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies 10 for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 11 making appropriate markings in the margins).

12 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings: the parties
13 must identify on the record, during the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected 14 testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony after reviewing the 15 transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving a deposition 16 transcript, designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential.

17 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the 18 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
19 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 20 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

21 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 22 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s
23 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a

1 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is 2 treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

3 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

4 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 5 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality
6 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 7 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 8 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 9 original designation is disclosed.

10 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
11 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 12 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or 13 in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer
14 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.
15 The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith 16 effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

17 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 18 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 19 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 20 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 21 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 22 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to 23 maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

1 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
2 LITIGATION

3 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 4 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 5 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party must:

6 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the subpoena
7 or court order;

8 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the 9 other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to 10 this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and 11 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 12 designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

14 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

15 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
16 confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, 17 the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the 18 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the 19 protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were 20 made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the 21 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

22 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
23 MATERIAL

24 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 25 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the

1 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This
2 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
3 order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. Parties shall 4 confer on an appropriate non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502.

5 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

6 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving
7 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts
8 and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of 9 destruction.

10 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
11 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
12 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert 13 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

14 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 15 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.
